

Tech Trek:

- is a week-long Summer camp for girls entering eighth grade
- girls are identified and nominated by their middle school teachers

Girls

- learn more about math and science
- perform cool experiments
- do hands-on activities
- interact with females working in STEM fields and empowers girls to:

- take AP courses in high school
- pursue a college degree in STEM
- enter the STEM workforce

contact us

Sue Slone, Director.
techtrekfl16@gmail.com

Roz Homer, Fundraising Coordinator.
eightgp1@gmail.com

Facebook.com/AAUWTechTrek

@AAUWTechTrek

Camp Location:
Palm Beach State College
3000 Saint Lucie Avenue
Boca Raton, FL 33431

Tech Trek is a Project of AAUW in collaboration with Palm Beach State College (PBSC) and Florida Atlantic University (FAU)– Boca Raton.

American Association of University Women (AAUW) empowers women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

<http://techtrek-fl.aauw.net>

girls week-long
STEM
camp

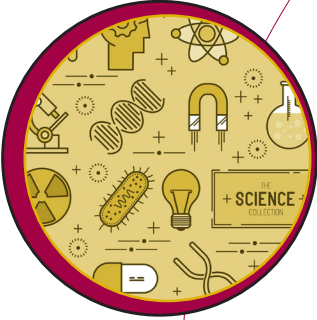

June 12–18, 2016

<http://techtrek-fl.aauw.net>

$3000

Hosts a Tech Trek field trip that inspires as well as educates.

How Can I Contribute?

$500

Provides workshop materials.

$1000

Funds a Tech Trek camper.

Make checks payable to:
AAUW

and mail it to:
Tech Trek Florida
P.O. Box 2938
Jupiter, FL 33468

Give your women employees a chance to be instructors, role models, and speakers at the camp.

